D.O.No.16-02/2009-DD.III

Dear Shri Agrawal,

February 15, 2010

As only 22% of persons with disabilities had been issued disability certificates upto 2007, our Ministry had constituted a Committee in May, 2007, for simplification and streamlining of the procedure for issue of these certificates. This procedure is governed by clauses (t) and (p) of Section 2 of the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 ("the PwD Act"), and rules framed thereunder by the "appropriate government". The Central Rules on the subject envisaged issue of disability certificate by a Medical Board having "at least three members" of whom at least one shall be a specialist in the relevant field. State Rules normally followed the same pattern.

2. The Committee mentioned in para 1 above had made the following major recommendations:-

- > Decentralization of the authority for issue of certificates in respect of obvious disabilities (amputation or complete permanent paralysis of limbs, and blindness), so that these may be issued at the level of Primary Health Centres (PHCs), Community Health Centres (CHCs) and Hospitals at the Sub-Divisional level;
- > Replacement of a three member Medical Board by a single specialist doctor for other (non-obvious) single disabilities, with a multi-member Board being required only to certify cases of multiple disabilities.
- > Taking services of non-government specialists and testing facilities in case these are not available in government hospitals.

3. After careful consideration of the Committee's recommendations, we have notified amendments to the Central PwD Rules on 30.12.09, a copy of which is enclosed, as Annex-I. Essentially, this notification replaces Chapter II: ["Guidelines for Evaluation and Assessment of various Disabilities"] of the Central PwD Rules with a new Chapter II ("Disability Certificate"), and adds certain new definitions in Rule 2 of its Chapter I. The new Chapter II omits any mention regarding Medical Boards, and leaves "Medical Authorities" for certifying disabilities, to be notified as per clause (p) of Section 2 of the PwD Act, so that the Central Government, where it is the "appropriate government", can now notify a decentralized and multi-tiered certification system as mentioned in para 2 above.

Similar changes need to be carried out by State Governments also, as "appropriate Governments".

In particular, we shall look forward to a feed back from you, latest by April-end, that steps mentioned in (i) - (iii) above have been completed, and about the progress of the rest.
